

Nominations Invited for 2022 Williams Prize in Louisiana History

The KEMPER AND LEILA WILLIAMS PRIZE, named for the founders of The Historic New Orleans Collection, offers a cash award of $1,500 for the best work on Louisiana history published between January 1 and December 31, 2022, as judged by a panel of historians appointed by the Louisiana Historical Association. The prize continues the former General L. Kemper Williams prizes, offered from 1974 through 1996 by The Historic New Orleans Collection and the Louisiana Historical Association.

Administration and funding for the Kemper and Leila Williams Prize is provided by The Historic New Orleans Collection. The prize jury is appointed by the Louisiana Historical Association with a chairperson from The Historic New Orleans Collection. The Kemper and Leila Williams Prize is announced at the annual meeting of the Louisiana Historical Society each March, and is widely publicized.

The Williams Prize Committee invites nominations of eligible works published between January 1 and December 31, 2022. Works about all aspects of Louisiana history and culture are eligible, as are works placing Louisiana subjects in regional, national, or international context.

- All submissions must be made IN QUADRUPLICATE: Four (4) copies of the nominated work AND four (4) copies of the entry form printed on the reverse of this announcement.
- The Williams Prize Committee welcomes nominations at this time and throughout the year.
- The final deadline for all 2022 Williams Prize submissions is JANUARY 13, 2023.
