

THNOC INTENSIVE WORKSHOP APPLICATION - 2017

Please fill out the following application completely. Return your completed application, along with a copy of your resume, to JenniferS@hnoc.org or Jenny Schwartzberg, Education Department, The Historic New Orleans Collection, 533 Royal Street, New Orleans, LA 70130. Completed applications and resumes must be received by May 15, 2017.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Name:

Email:

Phone:

Street Address:

City & State:

ZIP:

PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION

Current school:

City & State:

ZIP:

Grade(s) Taught:

Subject(s) Taught:

EMERGENCY CONTACT

Name:

Phone:

THNOC INTENSIVE WORKSHOP APPLICATION - 2017

Please respond to each of the following prompts in a few sentences.

What is the biggest challenge to incorporating primary sources in your teaching?

How would this workshop benefit you as an educator?

THNOC INTENSIVE WORKSHOP APPLICATION - 2017

After browsing the online catalog (<http://bit.ly/1g6AoNd>), create a proposal for a primary source activity based on an item from THNOC's holdings. Your proposal should include at least one specific learning objective, method of assessment, and Common Core standard.